Parish Life

Food and Baby Item Drive — The Knights of Columbus are conducting an Advent drive beginning next weekend — food for ARM (Assistance and Resources Ministry) and baby items for the Pregnancy Help Center/Catholic Charities of East Tennessee. Nonperishable food (no glass, please) as well as diapers, pullups, new bottles and pacifiers, baby blankets, towels, baby wash and lotion may be placed in the collection box near the entrance used during the pandemic.

Bereavement — Mary Seitzinger, daughter of Jim and Mary Stapleton and sister of Mike Stapleton, died recently. Please keep his family in your prayers.

Holy Hour — The Knights of Columbus are conducting an Advent holy hour beginning at 3 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 6. The hour will include the rosary, benediction, scripture and quiet reflection.

Dispensation

Catholics living in the diocese are not obligated to attend Sunday Mass until further notice. While not required, participating in Mass online is encouraged.

THE SLEEK AND THE STRONG

In the 6th century B.C., the political situation in the Middle East was highly volatile. The Hebrew prophets had anticipated a coming day of judgment. The rich and powerful — the sleek and the strong — of Israel would be sentenced by God. The description of the trial is similar to that pictured by Jesus in today's Gospel. In it, God judges between rams (sheep) and goats.

Saintly Wisdom

"Act as if everyday were the last of your life,
and each action
the last you perform."

Reading 1

(Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17)

Thus says the Lord GOD: I myself will look after and tend my sheep. As a shepherd tends his flock when he finds himself among his scattered sheep, so will I tend my sheep. I will rescue them from every place where they were scattered when it was cloudy and dark. I myself will pasture my sheep; I myself will give them rest, says the Lord GOD. The lost I will seek out, the strayed I will bring back, the injured I will bind up, the sick I will heal, but the sleek and the strong I will destroy, shepherding them rightly. As for you, my sheep, says the Lord GOD, I will judge between one sheep and another, between rams and goats.

Responsorial Psalm

(Psalm 23:1-3,5-6)

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. In verdant pastures he gives me repose. Beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul. He guides me in right paths for his name's sake. You spread the table before me in the sight of my foes; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Only goodness and kindness follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD for years to come.

Reading 2

(1 Corinthians 15:20-26, 28)

Brothers and sisters: Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep. For since death came through man, the resurrection of the dead came also through man. For just as in Adam all die, so too in Christ shall all be brought to life, but each one in proper order: Christ the first fruits; then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ; then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to his God and Father, when he has destroyed every sovereignty and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death. When everything is subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him, so that God may be all in all.

Gospel

(Matthew 25:31-46)

Jesus said to his disciples: "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne, and all the nations will be assembled before him. And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. He will place the sheep on his right and the goats on his left. Then the king will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me.' Then the righteous will answer him and say, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you?' And the king will say to them in reply, 'Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me.' Then he will say to those on his left, 'Depart from me, you accursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, a stranger and you gave me no welcome, naked and you gave me no clothing, ill and in prison, and you did not care for me.' Then they will answer and say, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or ill or in prison, and not minister to your needs?' He will answer them, 'Amen, I say to you, what you did not do for one of these least ones, you did not do for me.' And these will go off to eternal punishment, but the righteous to eternal life."
