Saul of Tarsus

In today's first reading, someone named Saul, who tries to meet the Apostles, is rebuffed. Saul is better known by his Roman name of Paul, the first great Christian missionary. The reason the Apostles reject him is that he has been a fanatic against Christianity. Saul has led what amounted to a one-man crusade against the followers of Jesus, arresting many of them and even participating in some of their executions! This all changes when he dramatically converts to the very faith he had hated. No wonder the Apostles are suspicious.
