The Supreme Good

SOMETHING NEW

God's miracle of helping their ancestors cross the Red Sea made a lasting impression on the people of Israel. It was annually reinforced by the celebration of Passover. They recalled it even during their exile in Babylon. Isaiah teaches them that now they will have an even greater event to recall — something new. God will deliver them from their new bondage and restore them to their former nation. The Church sees something more. God reveals to his people a totally new experience — the passionate love demonstrated in the Crucifixion and Resurrection. We marvel at the fact that the Creator of the entire universe personally comes to rescue those who are but specks of dust compared to God!
